

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen current Privacy Law protections. I am thrilled at not getting deluged with phone calls like we used to. It was particularly bad for us since we actually would give the occasional charitable contribution which seemed to target us for more calls. I love it now and do not want to return to how it was, especially with wanting to work a business out of my home. I don't need all the additional calls.